THE [NUMB. 863.]

Carolina Gazett

From MONDAY November 19th, to MONDAY November 26th, 1750.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 26.

On Thurſday laſt His Excellency our Governor made the following SPEECH to both Houſes of Aſſembly then met.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

AS I have the moſt ſincere and tender Concern for the Welfare and Happineſs of the People of this Province, it is a real Pleaſure to me to reflect, that during the Courſe of a long War they remained in Safety, and that I now ſee them in a flouriſhing Condition in Peace; Peace and Plenty are great Bleſſings, but they are not the only ones we poſſeſs; we enjoy all our Religious and Civil Rights, and there is not the leaſt Attempt to invade any of them, we live in the full Fruition of thoſe Laws and Liberties that are the Birth-right of Britiſh Subjects, we have the Priviledge of enacting ſuch other Laws as our Situation may make neceſſary for us, and to crown all, the beſt and moſt benign Prince that ever filled a Throne, is our Sovereign, who is a moſt indulgent Father of his People. May the Divine Goodneſs preſerve his precious Life; and perpetuate to us, in his illuſtrious Family, thoſe invaluable Bleſſings; and may we ſtudy to deſerve this Happineſs by grateful and dutiful Acknowledgements; let us fear God and honour the King.

I have been now ſeven Years amongſt you, in which Time I have given my Aſſent to many good Laws; I have endeavoured alſo that they ſhould be impartially executed, without which, however wiſely they might be framed, but little Benefit could be derived from them upon the People, and as it is the Intereſt of every good Subject that the Laws of his Country ſhould be executed with Regularity, as well as with Reſolution and Steadineſs, I muſt recommend it to each of you, that both in your legiſlative Capacity, and in your more private Stations, you will by your own Example create a Reverence for the Laws, and keep up the Authority of them.

In my Speech laſt Year I mentioned ſeveral Matters that you had not then Time fully to finiſh, which I wiſh you may now perfect, and I hope Gentlemen you will raiſe the Supplies with Chearfulneſs, as well for defraying the Debts incurred ſince, as for the neceſſary Service of the preſent Year, and when you conſider in what inconvenient Places both the Council and Aſſembly meet, that the Courts are kept in Taverns, and the Priſons in private Houſes, you will I do not doubt think it neceſſary to remedy theſe Matters.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I cannot conclude without commending your Conduct the laſt Seſſion with Regard to Indian Affairs, the Temper you ſhowed, the Enquiry you made, and the Reſolutions you came to, were truly becoming the Repreſentatives of the good People of the Province, you diveſted yourſelves of all Paſſion and Prejudice, you made a ſtrict Search after Truth, and having found it, you ſilenced Slander, and for once put a Stop to all falſe and fictitious Claims upon the Public, a Checque that was very neceſſary, but the happy Influence of your Reſolutions would have been more general and more durable had they been more commonly known.

In the Council-Chamber, the 22d Day of November, 1750. JAMES GLEN.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of His Majeſty's Council.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, now met in General Aſſembly, take this early Opportunity of returning Your Excellency our Thanks for your Speech this Day delivered to the two Houſes of Aſſembly.

We are very ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under the auſpicious Reign of the beſt Prince that ever filled a Throne, and we heartily join with Your Excellency, in praying that the Divine Goodneſs may preſerve His precious Life, and perpetuate to us, in His illuſtrious Family, thoſe invaluable Bleſſings; and we have alſo a due Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy, of living in a Country govern'd by the Laws and Conſtitutions of Great-Britain, and hope ever to enjoy thoſe Laws and Liberties, which are our Birth-rights and Inheritances as much as our Lands and Eſtates are; and we aſſure Your Excellency, we ſhall readily join in every lawful Meaſure, for the Continuance of thoſe glorious Rights and Priviledges to our lateſt Poſterity, and ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to defeat all Attempts to deprive ourſelves, or our Fellow-Subjects, of any of them; as we cannot render a more acceptable Service to our Moſt Gracious Sovereign, the common Parent and Guardian of all, even His moſt diſtant Subjects. And in theſe ſteady Reſolutions, we truſt, we ſhall always fear GOD and honour the KING: And ſhall alſo contribute every Thing in our Power, both in our legiſlative and private Stations, to ſee the Laws of this Province executed with Regularity, Reſolution and Steadineſs; and by our private Example create a Reverence for the Laws, and keep up the Authority of them.

At the ſame Time we beg Leave to aſſure Your Excellency, we ſhall take into our mature Conſideration, all Matters which Your Excellency, in your Speech the laſt Year, recommended to us for the promoting His Majeſty's Intereſt and the Good and Welfare of this His Province, which we had not then Time fully to finiſh; and that we will concur in raiſing the Supplies, with Chearfulneſs, as well for defraying the Debts incurred as for the neceſſary Service of the preſent Year; and ſhall do all in our Power to remedy the preſent Inconveniencies, of the Council, Aſſemblies,

…s of public Juſtice and public Pri… kept in incommodious Places.

…aſſure Your Excellency, that we ſhall, … Enquiries, as becomes His Majeſty's Council … Province met in General Aſſembly, continue to … ſtrict Regard to Truth: And we ſhall, as far as … lies, put a Stop to, and diſcountenance, All falſe fictitious Claims for Public Services; and endeavour … make Our Reſolutions ſatisfactory, by grounding them … the everlaſting Foundations of Right and Truth.

… the Upper-Houſe of Aſſembly, By Order of the Houſe,
… 22d Day of Nov[r]. 1750.
WILLIAM MIDDLETON.

To which His-Excellency gave the following ANSWER.

I Return you Thanks for ſo dutiful and loyal Addreſs to His Majeſty. Your Behaviour ſuits well with your Addreſs, both ſpeak the ſame Language. I am ſenſible of the Need I have of your Counſel and Advice: And I well know how ſerviceable it is to me to have it, and therefore I hope you'll ſtill continue to give it.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of South-Carolina, beg Leave to return Your Excellency our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for your Speech delivered to us Yeſterday at the Council-Chamber; wherein Your Excellency has been pleaſed, in ſo tender a Manner, to expreſs your Concern and Regard for the Welfare of the People of this Province; and has ſo pathetically repreſented our Happineſs in the full Enjoyment of All our Religious and Civil Rights, without the leaſt Attempt to invade any of them, under the auſpicious Reign of one of the beſt and moſt benign Princes that ever filled the Britiſh Throne, that we might be juſtly deemed deficient in our Duty if we did not, with the utmoſt Zeal, join Your Excellency in praying the Almighty Author of all Goodneſs long to preſerve our Moſt Gracious Sovereign's precious Life, and to perpetuate to us in his illuſtrious Family the ineſtimable Bleſſings we now enjoy.

The Laws which have received Your Excellency's Aſſent, ſince we have had the Happineſs of being under ſo juſt and mild an Adminiſtration, with Your Excellency's conſtant Endeavours to promote and enforce the Execution of them, have greatly contributed to the preſent happy State and Tranquility of the Province, which we beg Leave to aſſure Your Excellency we ſhall uſe all Means in our Power to maintain and ſupport, as well for the general Good of the Colony, as the Happineſs of Your Excellency's Adminiſtration; which we heartily and unfeignedly wiſh may be long and proſperous.

The ſeveral Matters left unfiniſhed laſt Seſſion, as well as thoſe now recommended to us by Your Excellency, ſhall be maturely conſidered, and ſuch Meaſures entered into concerning them, as may appear moſt conducive to the Honour and Utility of the Public, conſiſtent with the preſent Circumſtances of the Province.

Your Excellency's Approbation of our Conduct laſt Seſſion, with regard to Indian Affairs, is extremely agreeable to us, and adds greatly to the Satisfaction we then had; not only in diſcovering the Truth on that Occaſion, and putting a Stop to all falſe and fictitious Claims upon the Public, but alſo in having an Opportunity of ſhewing our Indignation and Reſentment againſt Falſehood, Malice and Slander, unjuſtly thrown on Your Excellency's Honour and Character, and tending to leſſen the Regard which is due to His Majeſty's Repreſentative the ſupreme Magiſtrate of this Province.

In the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, the 23d Day of Nov[r]. 1750. By Order of the Houſe, ANDREW RUTLEDGE, Speaker.

The Governor's ANSWER to the above ADDRESS.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs: Your Prayers and Vows, are juſtly due to Heaven, for a good and gracious King, and I am perſuaded they are the moſt grateful Tribute that can be paid His Majeſty.

The obliging manner in which you are pleaſed to expreſs your Acceptance of my Services, gives me great Pleaſure, and will be a further Inducement with me to endeavour to render my Adminiſtration ſtill more to the Profit and Satisfaction of the People.
